The advice in this document is prepared and given by Allianz and not your broker who is not authorised to provide advice on Allianz products.

1. A premium discount of up to 10% (offer) is applied when you are referred to Allianz, quote and purchase any eligible building or contents policy including Landlord and Renters cover in conjunction with any loan-purpose (new purchase, refinance, or other loan). The discount applies to all optional covers except to optional Portable contents cover (if available and selected). Offer is only available to customers referred to Allianz through the Allianz Mortgage Broker referral program by brokers aligned to eligible participating aggregators. Offer is not available to policies purchased online through the Allianz website. Offer is available for the first year of your policy only. Offer is available from 12:00AM AEST on 16 Aug 2026 to 11:59PM AEST on 14 Nov 2026. Your ability to obtain the full 10% premium discount may be affected by the following factors: a) Where discounts are applied, your premium is subject to rounding. b) If more than one discount applies to your premium, they're applied in a predetermined order, so the later discounts apply to the amount already reduced by the earlier discounts instead of the total amount. c) Discounts do not apply to government taxes and charges. d) Discounts won't apply below the minimum amount payable for the policy. 2. A discount of up to 10% is applied to your premium when you combine Buildings and Contents on one Home and Contents Insurance policy, including the optional covers (if selected): Motor Burnout and Accidental Damage cover. The combined discount doesn't apply to any flood component of the premium (where covered) or to the optional cover Portable contents (if selected). Minimum premiums may apply. Where discounts are applied, your premium is subject to rounding. If more than one discount applies to your premium, they're applied in a predetermined order, so the later discounts apply to the amount already reduced by the earlier discounts instead of the total amount. Discounts do not apply to government taxes & charges. Discounts won't apply below the minimum amount payable for the policy. 3. Building settlement cover is available if you enter into a 12-month Home/Landlord insurance policy with Buildings cover (12-month policy) with Allianz in connection with the purchase of a residential home/investment property. It is not available for land-only ownership or Strata Title properties. Cover is subject to normal underwriting terms and is offered subject to your eligibility for Home or Landlord Insurance. It provides cover for your home building from the date Allianz agrees to enter into the 12-month policy with you and expires on the date of settlement of your home as nominated by you. This period cannot exceed 90 days and will be shown as the Building settlement cover period on your schedule. Building settlement cover is provided on the same terms, conditions, limits and exclusions of your Home or Landlord (as applicable) insurance policy (which are set out in the Buildings cover section of the Product Disclosure Statement (PDS), and any Supplementary PDS provided and your policy schedule) during the Building settlement cover period shown on your schedule. For both Home and Landlords insurance neither Contents cover nor any of the optional covers applies during the Building settlement cover period shown on your schedule. If these are shown as covered on your schedule, they will apply from the effective date of your 12-month policy shown on your schedule. 4. Premiums payable by instalments may be subject to minor adjustments (upwards or downwards) due to rounding, and financial institution transaction fees may apply.
